

Saturday, Sept. 6, 2008

Romans 13:11-14***

If you work best under a deadline, then these verses may give you what you need. But I can't help thinking we shouldn't need a deadline.

If we really love the Lord, and if we are truly filled with God's grace, then that should be all the impetus we need. Loving our neighbors should be what we're about, not something we do to beat a deadline.

Keep opening yourself to God's grace, and putting yourself in situations where you're challenged to love your neighbors, and you will keep growing in Christ.